

Those whose life and blessings increase will do so at the expense of themselves. In other words, the more of God's blessings and promises we occupy the less of us others will see and the more Jesus will be visible!